

What should I already know?

- That things used to be different in the past.
- That we can learn things from the stories we read.

Key Knowledge

- To know that pictures, stories, artefacts and accounts can tell you about the past.
- To understand that life changes over time.
- To be able to compare and contrast characters from stories including figures from the past.

Key Vocabulary and Definitions

	Definition
Yesterday	The day before today.
History	Learning about things that happened in the past.
Past	A time before now.
Old	From a time long ago.
Before	Something that happened earlier than something else.

Stories Shared

