

What should I know?

- Christianity is a religion.
- People who follow Christianity are known as Christians.
- Christians believe in god.

What is Harvest?

The gathering of crops.

Why do Christians say grace?

Grace is a prayer said around mealtimes, either before or after eating. If grace is said before a meal, it's usually to bless the food. If it's said afterwards, it is normally to thank God for the food that has been eaten.

Key Vocabulary and definitions

Key Vocabulary
Christians	A person who h is a believer in Christianity.
Bible	the Christian holy book, consisting of the Old and New Testaments.
Grace	Thanking God for food before a meal with a special prayer.
Creation	Making something new.
Believe	Have religious faith and accept something is true.
Prayer	Asking for help or saying thank you to a God.
Creator	A person or thing that makes something new.

Facts I will know:

Christians believe in giving thanks to God.	Christians read and follow the holy bible.
Christians believe God made the world in seven days.	Christians sometimes say Grace before a meal.