

What should I already know?

- That people are the same and different.
- How to name and describe my family.
- How to identify things that are important to me.
- How to show an interest in the way others live their lives.

Key Knowledge

- To know what builds my identity and explore similarities and differences between myself and others.
- To begin to understand that how people see gender can limit my personal expression and choices.
- To recognise there are different groups we belong to.
- To understand how stereotypes might affect people.
- To know about people who help in the community.
- To Understand what community means and how this benefits people.

Key Vocabulary and Definitions

Identity	What makes you 'you'.
Similarities	Being the same as something else in some way.
Differences	Being different to something else in some way.
Gender	Being male or female.
Religion	The belief in and worship of a God or gods.
Community	A particular area together with those who live there.
Hobby	An activity done regular for pleasure.
Stereotype	A widely held idea about a particular type of person.
Home	A place where someone lives permanently.

Home can look different for different people

Flat

House

Bungalow

Caravan

Hut